

Your Donation Counts In Your Community

By: Larry Weiss, Executive Director

As our community continues to grow, the need for low vision services also continues to grow. Unfortunately there are many, many, low-income citizens living and working in the counties that we serve. Along with an increasing number of retired senior citizens that are on very tight living budgets, we find ourselves unable to fill some of the requests for visual aids that are needed by these folks because funding for purchasing independent living and low vision aids is running out. We now reach out to you, our clients and the citizens of the communities that we serve, and ask for your assistance with a donation.

Please remember that you are making a tax-deductible donation that will keep the Edith Bishel Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired operating to serve your community, and you, when you need our help. Our center will gladly send you a receipt for your donation. Any donation you can make will be greatly appreciated and all donations will remain in our community. Also please think about including us in your estate planning program, it will make you feel good and at the same time help sustain our center operations. We can give you a referral for help with your estate planning. Thank You.
